- Bingo update
Anne – the hall is still shutdown so not much to report. No new updates from Boulder County to when the hall will be able to open. The has been in contact to see if Frederick will be ready once it is open. And with original planning Anne reported that we would be ready to manage the games. Anne explained the different account amounts and funds that have been in since 2007 and if able to move those funds over to the booster club. Discussing having to do the quarterly report with the state and questioning how this will be done with the current COVID situation. Talk of the transition from Anne and the Booster club over to the new games manager and to the Music Foundation. Anne stated she would help with the transition process and help.

- Games Manager Training
Maureen is currently working on the state games manager license. And Whitney is planning to join in the training to get her state games manager license as well.
- Seasonal Grants
Closing the grants by December 18th to enter for this year's opportunities.

- Open Floor

Denyse Hudson – New girls swim coach introduced herself and was welcomed to the Booster club.

Ty Gordon – B season sports have all be pushed back, but wrestling, basketball and no fans but possible later in the season. Looking that maybe the C season and D seasons are looking good but will know more as time goes along.

Closed 7:30pm
