Jennifer Randolph – asked about liaisons for the different sports programs. Brian Young stated that this is a great way for the different programs to bring in parents to the booster club and help with bringing on more volunteers and opportunities for more ideas to the group as it grows.

Brian Young – Homecoming, Prom, and other events and sports events are still hopefully on the calendar, and if they are unable to happen then we move those funds back into the account.

Ann Schmitz – new members can take on events and bring the membership dues down if they help out and or sponsor some of the positions.

Miner's Day – and looking to have the High School setup a booth and Kevin Brown is looking into if the town will help support us setting this up.

Claudia – found a list of volunteers from last years Miners day and might be an option.

Brian Young and Ty Gordon – talking about the up and coming sports seasons with basketball and football, and if concessions will be allowed and how they will allow.

Chris – talking about some of the teams that are on track for some of the state championships. Ty updated about the teams so far on track for possible state, Girls Softball, Tennis, Golf and Cross Country.
